

SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

June 2016

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. Securities of the Company are listed on ASX and AIM.

1.2. This policy outlines:

- (a) when Key Management Personnel (KMP), Applicable Employees and other Employees may deal in Company Securities;
- (b) when KMP, Applicable Employees and other Employees may deal in listed securities of another entity (because they may obtain Inside Information about another entity's securities while performing their duties for the Group); and
- (c) procedures to reduce the risk of insider trading and the appearance of insider trading.

1.3. This Securities Trading Policy has been prepared to address the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and the AIM Rules which require the Company to provide a framework to KMP, Applicable Employees and Employees when Dealing in Securities of the Company. The Securities Trading Policy has been prepared taking into consideration the following:

- (a) the size, nature and stage of the development of the Company's resource projects (see below for further details);
- (b) obligations under the Corporations Act not to Deal in Company Securities whilst in possession of Inside Information;
- (c) rights of shareholders under the Constitution of the Company to freely trade their shares; and
- (d) contractual and statutory rights embedded in the Securities.

1.4. The Company's Securities Trading Policy has been prepared for the current stage of development of the Company. As the Company is in the exploration and development phase, key Inside Information is likely to be comprised of results from exploration, feasibility studies and corporate activities. Accordingly, the Closed Periods are based around the release of this information. In addition, Closed Periods are also defined to include periods in the lead up to the release of financial reports as specifically required by the AIM Rules.

BREACH OF POLICY

- 2.1. A breach of this Policy by an Employee (even if the Employee is not a KMP or Applicable Employee) is serious and may lead to disciplinary action, including dismissal in serious cases. It may also be a breach of the law.
- 2.2. Insider trading is a serious matter which is a criminal offence. It is punishable by substantial fines or imprisonment or both.
- 2.3. Insider trading may also attract civil penalties. A court may impose substantial pecuniary penalties for insider trading and order payment of compensation to persons who suffer loss or damage because of insider trading.

2. WHEN EMPLOYEES MAY DEAL

An Employee, who is not a KMP or Applicable Employee, may Deal in Company Securities or the Securities of a Transaction Entity if he or she does not have information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities or the Securities of a Transaction Entity.

3. WHEN EMPLOYEES MAY NOT DEAL

An Employee, who is not a KMP or Applicable Employee, may not Deal or procure another person to Deal in Company Securities or the Securities of a Transaction Entity if he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities or the Securities of a Transaction Entity.

4. WHEN A KMP OR APPLICABLE EMPLOYEE MAY DEAL

Subject to the requirements of this Policy (including the required prior approvals and restrictions during Closed Periods), a KMP or Applicable Employee may Deal in Company Securities or the Securities of a Transaction Entity if he or she does not have information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation Company Securities or the Securities of a Transaction Entity.

5. WHEN A KMP or APPLICABLE EMPLOYEE MAY NOT DEAL IN COMPANY SECURITIES

- 6.1. Subject to Clauses 7 and 8 of this Policy, a KMP or Applicable Employee may not Deal or procure another person to Deal in Company Securities:
 - (a) if he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities;
 - (b) during a Closed Period;

- (c) if he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, has not been announced to the market under ASX Listing Rule 3.1A or in accordance with AIM Listing Rule 11 in relation to Company Securities.

- 6.2. A KMP or Applicable Employee may not Deal or procure another person to Deal in the Securities of a Transaction Entity if he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation to the Securities of a Transaction Entity.
- 6.3. KMP or Applicable Employees are prohibited at all times from Dealing in financial products issued or created over or in respect of the Company's Securities (including, but not limited to, hedge arrangements). For the avoidance of doubt this clause does not apply to an option over unissued capital granted by the Company.
- 6.4. KMP or Applicable Employees are prohibited at all times from entering into margin lending or similar arrangements in respect to Company Securities they hold or in which they have a Relevant Interest.

6. EXCLUDED TRADING

Subject to compliance with AIM Listing Rule 21, this Policy does not prohibit Dealing in the Company's Securities during a Closed Period as outlined in Schedule 2.

7. EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES

- 8.1. The Approving Officer may give clearance during a Closed Period for a KMP or Applicable Employee to sell (but not buy) Company Securities in Exceptional Circumstances.
- 8.2. The Approving Officer may not give clearance under the exception in clause 8.1 without obtaining permission from AIM.
- 8.3. The Approving Officer may not give clearance under the exception in clause 8.1 if there is a matter about which there is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities (whether or not the KMP or Applicable Employee knows about the matter) when the KMP or Applicable Employee requests clearance or proposes to Deal in Company Securities. This prohibition is subject to any lawful obligation to the contrary (for example, for an order of a court).
- 8.4. The KMP or Applicable Employee seeking clearance to Deal in the Securities must outline in writing to the Approving Officer the circumstances of their severe financial hardship or as to why their circumstances are otherwise exceptional and that the proposed Dealing in the Securities is the only reasonable course of action available.
- 8.5. The Approving Officer will decide if the Exceptional Circumstances exist.
- 8.6. A list of matters that may constitute Exceptional Circumstances is contained in Schedule 3.

8. CLEARANCE FROM THE APPROVING OFFICER

- 9.1. At least 2 Business Days prior to when a KMP or Applicable Employee intends to Deal in Company Securities, the KMP or Applicable Employee must first inform the Approving Officer (and at the same time the Company Secretary) by submitting a completed Securities Trading Request Form (see Schedule 6). If the KMP or Applicable Employee is not able to fax or email a scanned copy of the Securities Trading Request Form, then the KMP or Applicable Employee may send an email with the same information in it to the Approving Officer.
- 9.2. The Approving Officer must approve or reject the Securities Trading Request as soon as practicable (generally within 2 Business Days). The KMP or Applicable Employee must not Deal in Company Securities until it has received the clearance from the Approving Officer.
- 9.3. The Approving Officer may not give clearance if:
 - (a) there is a matter about which there is or may be Inside Information in relation to Company Securities (whether or not the KMP or Applicable Employee knows about the matter) when the KMP or Applicable Employee requests clearance or proposes to deal in Company Securities;
 - (b) the Securities Trading Request form is lodged during a Closed Period;
 - (c) the proposed Dealing is during a Closed Period; or
 - (d) the Approving Officer has any other reason to believe that the proposed Dealing breaches this Policy.
- 9.4. In making a determination under 9.3(a) about the existence of Inside Information the Approving Officer should exercise caution and refuse the clearance if there is any possibility that Inside Information may exist.
- 9.5. Irrespective of any clearances given under this Policy, the Employee or KMP is not to Deal with Company Securities whilst in possession of Inside Information.
- 9.6. The Approving Officer must:
 - (a) keep a written record of:
 - (i) any information received from a KMP or Applicable Employee in connection with this Policy; and
 - (ii) any clearance given under this policy, including the duration for which the clearance applies; and
 - (b) send a copy of the written record to the Company Secretary for keeping.

9.7. The Company Secretary must keep a file of any written record referred to in clauses 9.1 and 9.6.

9.8. For the purposes of this policy, written requests and clearances may include facsimiles and emails and are valid for a period the earlier of:

- (a) 5 Business Days;
- (b) the Business Day before the Company enters a Closed Period; and
- (c) the time that the KMP or Applicable Employee comes into possession of Inside Information.

9. DEALINGS IN WHICH A KMP OR APPLICABLE EMPLOYEE HAS A RELEVANT INTEREST

A KMP or Applicable Employee must prohibit any Dealing in the Company Securities in which the KMP or Applicable Employee has a Relevant Interest while the KMP or Applicable Employee is in possession of Inside Information.

10. COMMUNICATING INSIDE INFORMATION

11.1. If an Employee (including a KMP or Applicable Employee) has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities or the Securities of Transaction Entity, the Employee must not directly or indirectly communicate that information to another person if he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the other person would or would be likely to:

- (a) Deal in Company Securities or the Securities of a Transaction Entity; or
- (b) procure another person to Deal in Company Securities or the Securities of a Transaction Entity.

11.2. Unless otherwise authorised, an Employee must not inform colleagues (except the Approving Officer) about Inside Information or its details.

11. NOTIFICATION OF TRADES IN COMPANY SECURITIES

KMP or Applicable Employees must notify the Company Secretary of any Dealings in the Company's securities with two business days of such Deal occurring. Initial, ongoing and final notifications will be required which must include the details set out in Schedule 4 to this Securities Trading Policy.

12. SPECULATIVE DEALING

A KMP may not deal in Company Securities on considerations of a short term nature.

13. DISTRIBUTION OF POLICY

This policy must be distributed to all KMPs and Employees.

14. ASSISTANCE AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Employees who are unsure about any information they may have in their possession, and whether they can use that information for Dealing in Company Securities or Securities in a Transaction Entity, should contact the Authorised Officer.

Schedule 1 – Defined Terms

In this policy:

AIM means the Alternative Investment Market operated by the London Stock Exchange.

AIM Rules means a listing rule of AIM.

Applicable Employee means an Employee who is likely to be in possession of Inside Information in relation to the Company irrespective of his or her holding or interest in the Company.

- (b) during the 5 Business Day period prior to the expected release of, and two hours after the actual release of, the following:
 - (i) quarterly activity reports;
 - (ii) a disclosure document for the offer of Securities in the Company containing Inside Information or information that has not been announced to the market under ASX Listing Rule 3.1A;
 - (iii) a target statement for a takeover offer for Securities in the Company;
 - (iv) a bidder's statement for the issue of Securities in the Company; and
 - (v) a scheme booklet for a merger by way of a scheme of arrangement involving the Securities of the Company; or
- (c) the period of two months immediately preceding the preliminary announcement of the Company's annual results; or
- (d) the period of two months immediately preceding the announcement of the half yearly report or, if shorter, the period from the relevant financial period and up to and including such publication; or
- (e) the period of one month immediately preceding the announcement of the quarterly cashflow reports or, if shorter, the period from the relevant financial period end up to and including the time of the announcement; or
- (f) any period when the Company is in possession of Inside Information.

Company means Wildhorse Energy Limited (ACN 117 085 748).

Company Securities means all Securities in the Company or a Group member whether or not listed or traded on the ASX, AIM or other financial market in Australia or the United Kingdom (including financial products issued or created over or in respect of the Company's Securities).

Corporations Act means the Corporations Act 2001 (Australia).

Deal includes acquiring, disposing of, subscribing for or entering into an agreement to acquire, dispose of or subscribe for, and Dealing has a corresponding meaning. This includes deals between Directors and KMPs, off-market deals and transfers for no consideration. A decision to join, or subscribe for shares under, any dividend reinvestment plan is not dealing in Company Securities

Director means a director of the Company or a person who acts as a director of the Company whether or not officially appointed to such position and for the purposes of this policy includes a Director's Family.

Employee means any employee or consultant of the Company.

Exceptional Circumstance has the meaning outlined in Schedule 3.

Family means in relation to any person, his or her spouse or civil partner and any child where such child is under the age of eighteen years. It includes any trust in which such individuals are trustees or beneficiaries and any company over which they have control or more than 20% of its equity or voting rights (excluding treasury shares) in a general meeting. It excludes any employee share or pension scheme where such individuals are beneficiaries rather than trustees.

Generally available information is information that is:

- (a) is readily observable;
- (b) has been made known in a manner likely to bring it to the attention of persons who commonly invest in securities of the relevant type and a reasonable period for that information to be disseminated has elapsed since it was made known; or
- (c) consists of deductions, conclusions or inferences made or drawn from information falling under paragraphs (a) or (b).

Group means the Company and each of its controlled entities.

Inside Information means information that is not generally available and if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a Material Effect on the price or value of the Company's Securities (and includes unpublished price sensitive information, as defined in the AIM Listing Rules). For the purposes of this Policy, Inside Information generally includes, but is not limited to the following (prior to it being generally available):

- (a) material exploration results;
- (b) material mineral resource or reserve estimates or exploration targets;
- (d) results of material technical studies (including, but not limited to, scoping, pre-feasibility, feasibility or other detailed technical studies);
- (e) sales and production figures;
- (f) profit and production forecasts;
- (g) material borrowings or material changes to terms of existing borrowings;
- (h) material changes to liquidity and material cash flow information;
- (i) significant changes in operations;
- (j) significant litigation;
- (k) impending mergers, joint ventures, acquisitions, restructures, takeovers;
- (l) major asset purchases or sales; and
- (m) material new products and technology.

Insider Trading in relation to this Policy means if a person has information about securities and the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the information is Inside Information, the person is prohibited from:

- (a) Dealing in the securities;
- (b) procuring another person to Deal in the securities; or
- (c) giving the information to another person who the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, is likely to:
 - (i) Deal in the securities; or
 - (ii) procure someone else to Deal in the securities.

Key Management Personnel or KMP means those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the entity, directly or indirectly, including any Director (whether executive or otherwise) chief executive officer, chief financial officer or company secretary of that entity, as determined in accordance with Accounting Standard AASB 124 'Related Party Disclosure'.

For the purposes of this Policy, information is taken to be Material or will have a Material Effect if the information would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly acquire securities in deciding whether or not to acquire or dispose of the Company's Securities.

Relevant Interest A person has a Relevant Interest in securities if they:

- (a) are the holder of the securities; or
- (b) have power to exercise, or control the exercise of, a right to vote attached to the securities; or
- (c) have power to dispose of, or control the exercise of a power to dispose of, the securities.

Security includes shares, debentures, rights, options, employee options, prescribed interests and warrants and Securities has a corresponding meaning.

Transaction Entity means an entity which the Company has business dealings which is listed on the ASX, AIM or any other financial market.

Schedule 2 – Exclusions From The Securities Trading Policy

Dealing excluded from the operation of Policy includes:

- (a) transfers of Securities already held into a superannuation fund or other saving scheme in which the KMP is a beneficiary;
- (b) transfers of Securities where there is no change in beneficial ownership;
- (c) an investment in, or trading in units of, a fund or other scheme (other than a scheme only investing in the securities of the entity) where the assets of the fund or other scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party;
- (d) where a KMP is a trustee, trading in Securities by that trust provided the KMP is not a beneficiary of the trust and any decision to trade during a Closed Period is taken by the other trustees or by the investment managers independently of the KMP;
- (e) undertakings to accept, or acceptance of, a takeover offer;
- (f) trading under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the security holders, such as, a rights issue, a security purchase plan, a dividend or distribution reinvestment plan and an equal access buy-back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the board. This includes decisions relating to whether or not to take up the entitlements;
- (g) subject to obtaining permission from AIM (if necessary) the exercise (but not the sale of securities following exercise) of an option or a right under an employee incentive scheme, or the conversion of a convertible security, where the final date for the exercise of the option or right, or the conversion of the security, falls during a Closed Period; and
- (h) trading under a non-discretionary trading plan for which prior written clearance has been provided in accordance with procedures set out in the trading policy and where:
 - (i) the KMP did not enter into the plan or amend the plan during a Closed Period;
 - (ii) the trading plan does not permit the KMP to exercise any influence or discretion over how, when, or whether to trade; and
 - (iii) the entity's trading policy does not allow for the cancellation of a trading plan during a Closed Period other than in exceptional circumstances.

Schedule 3 – Exceptional Circumstances

For the purposes of this Policy, Exceptional Circumstances include:

- (a) severe financial hardship whereby the Employee has a pressing financial commitment that cannot be satisfied otherwise than by selling the relevant Securities.

For example, a tax liability of an Employee would not normally constitute severe financial hardship unless the person has no other means of satisfying the liability. A tax liability relating to Securities received under an employee incentive scheme would also not normally constitute severe financial hardship or otherwise be considered an Exceptional Circumstance.

- (b) The Employee is required by a court order, or there are court enforceable undertakings, for example, in a bona fide family settlement, to transfer or sell the securities of the entity or there is some other overriding legal or regulatory requirement for him or her to do so.
- (c) An unforeseen circumstance that is considered by the Board to be consistent with the objectives of this Policy.

Schedule 4 – Notification Requirements
